Confusion,
Errors,
Rework,
Depression

If a content writer creates eLearning content without using the correct constructs of Instructional Design, both the content writer and her audience suffer.

Boredom,
Confusion,
Lack of Learning,
Dissatisfaction,
Anger

The 3-Day Instructional Design for eLearning (IDeL) program by Creative Agni® ensures that your content developers and instructional designers become confident of designing and developing any kind of the content for any audience-group.

Among other things, they will learn to create audience profiles, write objectives of varying complexity levels, use different instructional design theories and models to decide upon the right examples, design the appropriate practice activities, and create relevant assignments and other assessments for their remote audience.

Efficiency,
Confidence,
Creativity,
Happiness,
Growth

Instructional design ensures a smooth design and development process that results in effective transfer of knowledge and skills to the learner.

Attention,
Clarity,
Learning,
Satisfaction,
